DETAILED ACTION

1. The new title is acceptable, the claim change is not.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-11 and 32-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 the phrase "the first identified operating flight" was modified to "a first identified operating flight" which is not supported by the specification, but further is not the reason the claim was previously rejected under 112, the consistency of wording about the flight identified should be, "a first departing flight" then "the identified first departing flight" then again "the identified first departing flight" and finally "the identified first departing flight"

Claim 34.

The phrase "first identified flight" should be "identified first departing flight".

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowability:

As per Claims 1 and 32.

The prior art of record, specifically Garback ('499) in view of DeLorme et al ('040) further in view of DeMarcken ('808) or Webber ('953) or Guenther ('748) does not disclose or fairly teach:

identifying a first airport, the first airport being within a first threshold measurement of the activity location, wherein the first threshold measurement comprises at least one of a walking distance, a set distance and a time threshold;

Art Unit: 3639

computing an optimal arrival time from the activity start time, the activity location and the first airport;

identifying a first departing flight associated with the first airport, the identified first departing flight associated with a flight arrival time and the identified first departing flight being between the origin location and the first airport;

wherein the flight arrival time of the identified first departing flight is prior to the optimal arrival time;

identifying an optimal ground transportation option between the first airport and the activity location; and providing an optimal trip option for transportation from the origin location to the activity location, wherein the optimal option includes the first identified departing flight and the optimal ground transportation option.

The claims that depend from the above are allowable for the same reasons.
